

Introducing Chris Gribble CMT Director and Course Trainer

CMT is a Division of Universal Education and Training Ltd

Chris has been a Christian Ministry Trainer and Coach for many years as well as functioning as a Bible College Dean of a regional Queensland “live in” campus.

Chris has also been a Pastor for many years and in his most recent appointment he led a Church from debt and discouragement to a place of wholeness and stability as well as the construction of their own building. Chris has also been on the board of a local Christian Rehabilitation centre that works with mothers with substance abuse issues.

Chris is also currently a Council Member at State level within a very large Christian Church Ministry organisation where sometimes complex and challenging issues draw on his wide-ranging life experience and heart for the Lord's Kingdom.

Chris currently functions as Registered Training Organisation Consultant, and has a wealth of “real life” experience as a building site labourer, a fitter and turner, a Nurse, School Teacher and Business Manager.

Chris is a family man married to April with four children. Chris and April are actively involved in supporting mission activities including a home for disadvantaged children in China. More recently Chris and April have decided to serve the Lord by partnering with a ministry rescuing children from prostitution in Thailand and other places.

We are blessed to have Chris assisting as our CMT Director and Trainer.
